

We remind you that, in accordance with the applicable regulations, to access any hotel in the Canary Islands it will be mandatory, for all tourists over six years old who do not come from the Autonomous Community of the Canary Islands, to show proof of a valid infection diagnostic test established by the health authorities within a maximum period of 72 hours prior to their arrival, that proves that the tourist has not tested positive as a COVID-19 transmitter, except in the case of (i) residents of the aforementioned Autonomous Community or (ii) non-residents who prove through their travel documents that they have remained in the territory of the aforementioned Autonomous Community for at least 15 days prior to the date of Access to the tourist accommodation establishment. In both cases, the relevant declaration statement must be provided stating that there have been no symptoms compatible with COVID-19 during the referred period.

Proof of having taken the diagnostic test may be accredited by providing a certificate, digital or on paper, stating the date and time of the test, the identity of the person who had it taken, the laboratory responsible for its verification. and its nature, as well as the negative result.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the conditions of access may be modified if the health authorities so require, depending on the evolution of the epidemiological situation in the territories of origin or in the Autonomous Community of the Canary Islands itself.

In light of the above, the hotel reserves the right to deny access to any person who does not comply with the above.

Likewise, it is stated that, in accordance with the applicable regulations, the hotel will keep at the disposal of the health authorities both the information contained in the registration sheets, as well as the documentation proving compliance by the client with the access conditions indicated above. for a period of three years. Once the indicated period of time has elapsed, the data will be duly deleted. No assignments will be made to third parties unless it is imposed by a legal obligation.

The treatment of personal information that is carried out as a result of this legal obligation will be done in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, regarding the protection of persons with regards to the processing of personal data and the free circulation of these data and by which Directive 95/46 / CE ("RGPD") is derogated, in Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, Protection of Personal Data and warranty of digital rights, and in the provisions of articles eight, one and twenty-three of Law 14/1986, of April 25, General Health. Likewise, it is stated that the purpose of the treatment will be to guarantee the right to safety and protection of the health of the tourist; attending to reasons of essential public interest in the specific field of tourism, and for the protection of vital interests of those affected and of other persons under the provisions of the GDPR. In this sense, it is stated that the hotel will be responsible for the treatment of the data it collects from its clients, guaranteeing at all times the application of the pertinent security measures.

Additionally, we remind you that, in accordance with the applicable regulations, you must download and keep active during your stay in the Autonomous Community of the Canary Islands, as well as the 15 days immediately after returning to your place of origin, the contagion alert mobile application "Radar Covid". In this regard, we inform you that the hotel will not have access to the information provided through this application.

Finally, you are informed that, by formalising the reservation and / or contracting the hotel's tourist accommodation services, you declare that you have been informed and expressly accept the provisions of the preceding paragraphs.

